Edmonton Chamber of Commerce and World Trade Centre Edmonton presents FITT - The Professional Path to Global Markets

FITT – Forum for International Trade Training equips individuals and businesses with the practical skills they need to succeed in today’s competitive global marketplace. A non-profit organization established by industry and government, FITT develops international business programs, sets competency standards, and designs the certification and accreditation programs for the Certified International Trade Professional (CITP) designation.

World Trade Centre Edmonton, the international division of the Edmonton Chamber and a member of the World Trade Centers Association, has partnered with FITT to offer programming, providing employers with resources to build their international business capacity; assisting individuals in developing their international business skills and knowledge; and providing international business training support for educators and students.

Join us at the World Trade Centre Edmonton, along with FITT representatives as the partnership between the two organizations is officially launched.
